Saudi Aramco or its designated representatives may engage in periodic monitoring activities to confirm suppliers' compliance with this Code of Conduct. These monitoring activities may include on-site inspections of facilities, use of questionnaires, review of publicly available information, or other measures necessary to assess supplier compliance with this Code of Conduct. Such monitoring activities may be performed in addition to any audit rights, which may be set forth in an agreement with Saudi Aramco. and procurements, or to possibly restrict supplier access to new Saudi Aramco business opportunities.

Based on the assessment of information made available to Saudi Aramco, Saudi Aramco reserves the right (in addition to all other legal and contractual rights) to disqualify any potential supplier or to terminate any relationship with a current supplier that Saudi Aramco has found to be in violation of this Supplier Code of Conduct, without liability.

Confidentiality

As part of the process of seeking to provide goods, services, or personnel (including consultants) to Saudi Aramco or in providing such goods, services, or personnel under the terms of an applicable agreement, suppliers may gain access to information or material that Saudi Aramco deems to be proprietary or confidential. Suppliers, in all instances, shall comply with the obligations of confidentiality that are set forth in the applicable request for proposal, invitation to bid, other solicitation document, or agreement by and between Saudi Aramco and the supplier. Saudi Aramco views breaches of confidentiality and unauthorized disclosure or use of proprietary or confidential information very seriously and reserves the right (in addition to all other legal and contractual rights) to disqualify any potential supplier or to terminate any relationship with a current supplier Saudi Aramco has found to have violated its obligations of confidentiality. All advertising, press releases, or printed matter that reference Saudi Aramco or a supplier's relationship with Saudi Aramco must be approved by the Saudi Aramco Communication Content & Channels Department prior to publication or other use.

This Code of Conduct should not be read in lieu of, but in addition to, any supplier obligations set forth in a) requests for proposals, invitations to bid, or other solicitation documents, or b) agreements by and between Saudi Aramco and the supplier. In the event of a conflict between this Code of Conduct and any Saudi Aramco solicitation documents or applicable agreements, the terms of Saudi Aramco's applicable solicitation documents or agreements shall prevail. The requirements of this Code of Conduct are not subject to waiver. Neither Saudi Aramco, its suppliers, nor their personnel or representatives are authorized to propose or approve conduct inconsistent with this Code of Conduct.
